YOUR SECTOR LED TEAM for Interim Talent

Sometimes you just need the right person — fast. Whether it's to steady the ship, lead a big change, or step in during a gap, we've got you covered.

At West Midlands Employers (WME), we're proud to launch our refreshed Interim Management service — a collaborative, not-for-profit partnership with Solace in Business and Opus People Solutions. Designed around trust, public sector expertise, and simplicity, this joined-up offer gives councils across the region easy access to trusted, expert interim talent.

- Struggling to find the right interim talent quickly?
- Tired of searching far and wide with little success?

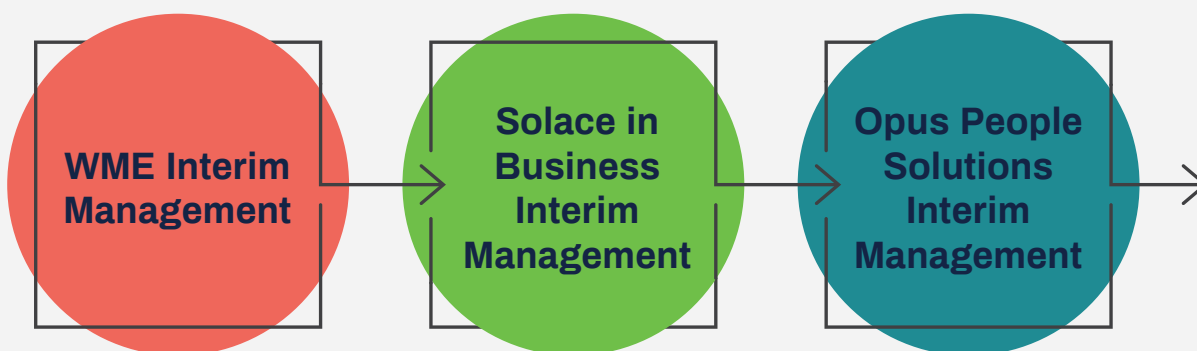

Let us do the hard work

We understand your needs and know how to deliver the right fit, fast. A conversation with us could be exactly what you need.

Our Process

Through one door, you can now access:

Together, we offer more than placements-
we offer partnership with purpose

Why We Are Different

This is interim support done differently!

- Public sector experts who understand the unique pressures and culture of local government
- Not-for-profit providers who reinvest surpluses back into the sector – your sector
- Extensive networks that span all Local Government leadership roles; customer-facing or corporate, including digital, legal, finance, HR and transformation professionals
- Access to experienced interim professionals in all statutory roles, including Head of Paid Service, s151 and Monitoring Officers.
- Collaborative working with professional bodies and sector partners to align talent with your strategic goals

We're already working closely with councils both nationally and across the region, whilst also working with professional networks such as LGA, ADASS, ADCS, PPMA, LLG, CIPFA and Socitm. This gives us insight into current workforce needs — and a direct line to highly skilled professionals ready to step in and deliver results.

Above all, this offer is rooted in the power of collective working — drawing on decades of experience, shared values, and a deep commitment to the future of public services in the West Midlands.

Whether you need interim leadership to stabilise, transform, or lead through change — our partnership is here to deliver trusted, values-led solutions you can rely on.

A Better Way to Get the Job Done

Tired of long searches, no results, and having to chase people down? We're here to change that.

- We'll take the brief and do the hard work — fast.
- We don't just match skills — we match values, fit and leadership style.

Whether you need someone now, or you're planning ahead, our job is to make your job easier.

At WME, we'll start with a consultation to understand your brief, then collaborate with our partners at Solace and Opus People Solutions, along with our internal experts, to shape the right approach. Together, we'll deliver candidates who don't just meet your needs — they exceed them.
